

Advanced Nutrients - Iguana juice - Grow

Advanced Nutrients strikes again with a whole new highly concentrated liquid fertilizer designed for optimal growth of all plants especially for the production of resins and essential oils and medicinal plants of great value. This powerful liquid fertilizer is 100% organic and totally soluble.

The amount of organic matter in a single bottle of Iguana Grow exceeds up to 15 times the amount used by any other manufacturer of organic fertilizers. During careful testing we obtained impressive crop yields, surpassing even those obtained with our legendary 2-component formula. This powerful blend of organic elements produces better growth of plant stems and lateral branches, develops a huge root mass in a very short time and strengthens the overall plant for flowering, preparing for the formation of huge buds, also it promotes the internodal distances they are very short, producing dense, thick and heavy buds with fresh, aromatic flavor that can only provide the best organic fertilizers.
