

Kiwiseeds - Auto Mako A/F ®

The 'Mako Haze' is strain that needs no introductions, famous for its super strength qualities, high in not only THC but CBD also, making it perfect for medical patients. After much demand from outdoor european growers, Kiwiseeds can now Offer the 'Mako Haze' in an auto-flowering version. One of the strongest 'automatic' plants available today. With an average height of 60-70 cm, it can grow virtually anywhere.

After an initial phase of growth lasting approximately 3 weeks, the plant quickly enters the flowering stage, producing large, compact buds covered with crystal and emitting a sweet, sandelwood aroma.
