

Proscale - Calculator

ProScale introduces the Calculator Scale Series scales for 2009. These scales have been built to look like calculators & are extra-versatile, sleek & mobile to carry around anywhere or even place on your home or office desk!

These scales have bright-blue LCD display that are easy-to-read. The protective cover easily slides off & slides on securely as well. Underneath the Cover is the huge Stainless-Steel Platform. The cover can double as an Expansion Tray for larger items.

The sleek design of the Calculator Scale will have everyone wanting to know if it's a calculator you have! The ProScale Calculator Scale might not be a calculator, but it's an amazingly accurate & durable scale!!
