

CBD Crew - CBD Divine

Aroma description:

Fruitiness of berries and flowers, with a deep pine undertone and some citrus mixed in.

Overall description:

CBD Divine is named after Shen Nung, “The Divine Farmer”. He is considered father of Chinese medicine and pharmacology and credited with bringing agriculture to ancient China. He wrote one of the first documented recommendations for the medical use of cannabis almost 5000 years ago. CBD Divine is a beautiful indica dominant regular strain. While the plant looks like a super skunk in appearance it has flavors ranging from citrus to fruit to berries and more. It is a staple plant for those looking to make good extractions for pain management and insomnia. In general it flowers very quickly and is easy to grow for all levels of cultivators.
