

Cibiday - CBD E-Cigarette Pen 5%

This is a rechargeable cannabidiol-rich e-cigarette in pen form! The included e-liquid has a CBD content of 5%, and contains less than 0.2% of the psychoactive THC. It comes from CBD-rich extract from the leaves and flowers of certified hemp plants grown in fields located in Europe, in a completely legal and 100% organic way (only natural resources are used, no chemicals and synthetic pesticides that harm the environment, animals or humans).

It comes in a aluminum storage case, with an attractive design. Don't hesitate about trying this healthier alternative, without ash or fire risk. In addition, it is rechargeable via USB. The battery indicator light changes from green to red while charging. When charging is completed, the green light will come on again. Includes AC Adapter.
